

PAR publishes guide to La. amendments

September 16, 2007

The Public Affairs Research Council of Louisiana has released its “Guide to the Proposed Constitutional Amendments” that will appear on the Oct. 20 ballot.

The guide explains the potential effects of the four amendments that the public will consider in the upcoming election.

The proposed amendments concern the state’s supplemental pay program for law enforcement officers and firefighters, future retirement benefits for members of state retirement systems, and a property tax exemption for jewelry held on consignment.

Copies of the guide, which costs $3.50, may be ordered from PAR at P.O. Box 14776, Baton Rouge, LA 70898-4776 or by calling (225) 926-8414. The guide can be accessed on PAR’s Web site at <http://www.la-par.org/>.
