

Politics for Aug. 8, 2010

PAR researcher Keller honored

Longtime Public Affairs Research Council of Louisiana researcher Richard T. “Ty” Keller has received a national award recognizing his career of service in governmental research.

Keller was honored with the Frederick P. Gruenberg Award by the Governmental Research Association at the group’s annual conference in New York recently. A 40-year associate of PAR, Keller is current senior research associate emeritus.